CHRYCO[®]

OIL FILTERS

You can depend on Chryco Micronic Oil Filters to reduce engine wear and improve engine performance. Chryco Micronic Oil Filters have 571 square inches of filtering area compared to only 69 square inches for ordinary filters. That's over 8 times the filtering surface! No wonder Chryco Micronic Oil Filters do a better job of removing grit, sludge, and other harmful elements from engine oil.

YULE MAIL DATES FOR TROOPS SET

It's time to start thinking about sending Christmas parcels and mail to soldiers and airmen overseas.

Parcels and ordinary letters to troops in Japan and Korea must be posted to reach Vancouver not later than Nov. 7. Airmail must arrive in Vancouver by Dec. 5.

Parcels for troops in Britain and Europe must be posted to reach Montreal not later than Nov. 23. Ordinary letters must reach Montreal by Nov. 27. The deadline for airmail is Dec. 14 at all ports.

Weight limit on parcels to the Far East and Europe is 10 pounds by parcel post and four pounds, six ounces by airmail. Size and value regulations should be checked at local post offices.

All mail should be properly addressed and fully prepaid at the postage rate for overseas delivery. A customs declaration form should be completed and attached to all parcel post.

FREE RIDE CAN BE COSTLY

Letting your children take a ride with the milkman or other delivery men can prove a costly business if there's an accident. Unless you can prove the driver negligent you are not likely to collect damages, a recent court decision indicates. It favored a dairy truck driver against whom a lower court had awarded damages for injuries received by two boys whom the driver had carried as passengers.

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

QUESTION: What is your share of Alberta's Agricultural wealth?

ANSWER: Approximately ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS for each man, woman and child in the province.

AGRICULTURE, our basic industry, brought $758,000,000 to the people in 1951!

That is why your government is so concerned about the proper use and care of the soil and the welfare of the farmer.

Outstanding achievements in the past few years, brought about by the Alberta Department of Agriculture include:

- A ten-fold expansion in the production of forage crops for fodder and seed
- Assistance in the establishment of municipal seed cleaning plants
- Determined rat extermination, coyote control and weed control programs
- A tree planting program with annual plantings of 2,000,000 trees
- Livestock assistance to farmers for the purchase of purebred bulls, now in excess of $500; placing of 2,400 boars, 819 rams, and distribution of 1,200 dairy heifer calves to junior dairy calf clubs
- Assistance to feeder associations which to date have finished a total of 141,481 head of cattle and 407,503 sheep
- Establishment of Dairy Cattle inspection, instruction and cow testing service to help increase the volume of fluid milk, raise the quality and direct attention to the economy of the industry

Through The Study Window

(By Rev. C. C. Armstrong)

Do I need remind you of the clothing drive, and that good, clean mended clothing is to be left with Mrs. Long? And I should remind mothers and children that Mission Band is this Thursday after school.

Now, what about coming events?
On Thursday the 30th, at 8:30 in Knox Church basement, Rev. Robt.
Christie, assistant secretary of Evangelism and Social Service, will conduct an informative school or "workshop" for session members, Sunday School teachers and all others wishing to further the evangelistic work of the church, particularly lay people. That's the night after the paper comes out.

On Halloween everybody will be busy with their own pursuits, both laudable and deplorable. Or will there be none of the deplorable — should we say upsetting — incidents. One hopes only that certainly commendable will take place. If certain youngsters prove irresponsible on Halloween night let it not be said the citizens proved that the young care about the health facilities in the community. Insufficient hospital accommodation might mean that you will find yourself some day, snugly in bed in the corridor sandwiched between the baby incubators and the broader house (sometimes referred to as the maternity ward). What it means is that little children may have to be placed in the reception room as a temporary ward. The only thing that helps in hospital reception rooms or doctors' room is a dog-eared supply of Life (vintage 1949) or the Reader's Digest for November, 1951. They have a very valuable sedative effect and are not to be despised. But reception rooms as wards? Definitely not. But whether you agree or not, don't fail to vote on the hospital by-law.

Then on Sunday, November 2, following up the evening service, there will be a rallying of the young people. Senior high school students and young people (particularly 18-25 years) are eligible. We'll be looking for you young people to be there.

For the men a special event will be the bean supper (for free) at 6:30 on Monday, November 3. All United Church men are eligible to attend and most certainly are sincerely invited to be present. Come and enlarge both your waist line and your understanding of A.O.T.S.

O.S.A. Notes

Students numbering 165 registered last week for the opening of the fall term at the Olds School of Agriculture.

Thirty-three young men returned for their second and final year in the first agriculture. Sixty are commencing the first year. Thirty-two qualify for the two-in-one course in agriculture, having completed 70 or more credits in high school.

Fifteen girls are enrolled in second year home economics. Seventeen are commencing the first year of a two-year course. Six are qualified for the two-in-one course in home economics because of advanced high school training.

NOTESW.K. Snyder,
Field Supervisor

Trash Cover and Crop Yield: If you notice a slight yield reduction following the first year of trash cover farming, don't become discouraged, advises G. R. Sterling, supervisor of soil conservation and weed control, Alberta department of agriculture. These reductions do occur under certain conditions, but tremendous benefits of trash cover far outweigh slightly lowered yield at the beginning. This lower yield, says Mr. Sterling, is due largely to lack of sufficient nitrogen in the soil. The bacteria that decompose the straw and trash require nitrogen, and they may rob the soil of this element so that there is not enough for the growing crop. With continued trash cover farming, a reserve of nitrogen is gradually built up in the soil until at the end of two or three years increased crop yields will be noted.

Mr. Sterling says that in soils where there is not enough nitrogen to supply the needs of both bacteria and crop, a nitrogenous fertilizer might be used to advantage.

Ammonium nitrate applied at the rate of 100 pounds per acre may be used for this purpose. Spring application of this fertilizer has proved quite satisfactory. The effects of fall application are still under test.
It may pay you to take time to investigate and place your order for ammonium nitrate, if you have a lot of straw to work into your ground.

After all this beautiful weather the "after ripening" process with wild oats has likely been completed.
If the ground is worked shallowly this fall the wild oats are more likely to sprout earlier in the spring.
It will then be possible to destroy the new growth and to seed the new grain crop several weeks earlier than would otherwise be possible in the spring.

Queen Sends
Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Webb of Stettler received a telegram of congratulations from Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary Monday.
A reception was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Cora Clark, who with her sister, Mrs. A. Rapien of Didsbury, assisted in receiving the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb are natives of Fredrickton, N.B., and came to Stettler in 1917. They settled on a farm 10 miles south of town, and have farmed in the district until moving into town last year, to reside with Mrs. Clark.

Both are in good health, and are active in church affairs, being identified with the local Baptist church for many years.

Mrs. Webb has been most active in Red Cross work, during and after the war. The amount of knitting and the number of quilts made by her nimble fingers has prompted the local branch to recommend to the Alberta Division that she be given the "Award of Merit." A letter to this effect, accompanied by a bouquet of mums, was received by Mrs. Webb to mark the anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb have a family of four children, all of whom were present for the occasion: Mrs. Chris Rapien of Didsbury, Mrs. Cora Clark, Arthur and Eldon Webb of Stettler.
An adopted daughter in Vancouver was unable to be present.

Bayonets were named for Bayonne, France, where they were first made.

DISTRICT NEWS

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Twelve ladies gave Mrs. H. Johnson a pleasant surprise when they gathered at her home for a "hubo party". Don't be surprised any of you, if your next for a visit in the afternoon.

A Halloween party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin next Friday evening. Everyone welcome. Ladies bring doughnuts and two cups of sugar. The sugar will be used for a taffy pull.

You are all invited to attend the regular church and Sunday School service each Sunday, held under the direction of Rev. R. Moore and Rev. C. Moore of Calgary. The services are held in the Fallen Timber school. Church services begin at 2 p.m. and Sunday School follows immediately. We have classes for all ages from Cradle Roll to adults.

Plans for the new church are progressing and we hope to start building soon. We wish to thank those who have donated time, lumber, labor and money up to the present time. We will need lots of help to complete the church building. If you feel that you would like to give of your time or money, it would be greatly appreciated, no matter how small.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin, Gordon and Anne Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Monecy and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Teynor in honor of their daughter Carol's birthday a week ago Sunday evening.

Bergen Notes

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Trygve Halvorsen was hostess at a mother and daughter banquet for the members and mothers of her girls' Sunday School class.

Following a bountiful repast several mothers and daughters took part in an interesting program with Mrs. Ratcliff as mistress of ceremonies. There were several contests with prizes for winners. The evening proved very enjoyable, even to the fathers present.

Young people of the Pentecostal Holiness church enjoyed a social evening and wienner roast at the Harvey Wideman home Friday evening.

The congregation of the Bergen U.M. church presented a service at Moravian church at Zella Sunday evening. The main feature was a court session in which the Sunday School won the case for adoption of a boy.

Work has begun on the addition to the U. M. church building. This addition will house space for an auditorium, Sunday School rooms and lobby.

Donations of lumber and material have been received but more will be needed to complete the job, and any help would be gratefully received.

Rev. Swalm announces that the Sunday School is going to start to drill for all next Sunday, so come and see how it is done.

Mr. Norman Dipple was taken to Olds hospital last week with a badly injured leg that was feared broken. This is bad luck for a man whose wedding date is only a couple of weeks away.

KNOX UNITED CHURCH W.M.S. HOLDS FALL THANK OFFERING
The Knox United Church W.M.S. Fall Thank Offering meeting was recently conducted by Mrs. Iren Clarke and Mrs. Sam Devine. The speaker was Miss Winifred Warren, former missionary to China for the United church and now with the Chinese Mission in Calgary. Miss Warren gave a very interesting talk on the work of the church in that country.

WHAT KIND OF TEACHERS?

What kind of teachers and professors do we have?

When school days are over, the graduate finds that he has not been influenced by the genius of an instructor, the man who can write with both hands, the great orator or the meticulous scholar who remembers the temperature of the Delaware when Washington crossed and whether or not it rained the day Sir John A. Macdonald was born, remarks the Financial Post.

Wisdom, as opposed to simple knowledge has been imparted to him only by those of integrity and character who had the spark of vision to help his mind reach for the stars.

There aren't many of them—probably three or four in one's entire school days. Yet these are the persons which educational institutions must have.

Our concern over courses and their content perhaps has been over-emphasized. It doesn't matter much what courses are supposed to contain.

It does not matter who teaches them, adds The Post.
McMaster University's President Gilmour gently put his finger on the issue when he said that although the task of changing courses is never finished, "until we learn better what to prescribe, let us teach well what we have decided to offer."

WEDDINGS

SUMMERS—GOLE

The Evangelical Church, Didsbury was beautifully decorated with autumn bowers and colored leaves September 20th, for the wedding of Elizabeth Ruth Gole of Didsbury and Bryan Clayton Summers of Erskine. Rev. A. J. Gramms performed the ceremony.

Proceeded down the aisle by her three attendants, Miss Gole entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a classic gown of slipper satin and nylon lace, the full skirt sweeping into a cathedral train. Matching medallions trimmed her chapel veil of nylon tulle which fell from a pearl-studded halo. Her jewelry, a gold necklace and earrings to match, was the gift of the groom. She carried red roses.

Attending her sister-in-law as matron of honor, Mrs. Stan Gole chose a full-skirted frock of net over brocade in flickering shades of gold. Her bouquet of carnations matched her gown and she wore a halo of nylon net and pearls.

Miss Irma Newfield and Miss Lila McCulloch chose like dresses in shades of mauve and blue respectively, fashioned from brocade and net. They carried matching bouquets of carnations and their halos were nylon and pearls.

Mr. Ed McKay attended the groom and Mr. Ron Summers and Mrs. Fox Fulkert ushered the guests.

Miss Ester Newfield, in a floor-length gown of aqua net over tulle, played the wedding music.

Miss Pat McDonald, in ankle-length dress of pink tulle, sang "Because", during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony, a reception prepared by the Evangelical Ladies' Aid was served to 62 guests in the church basement. The wedding colors were again carried out in the decorations of flowers, streamers and candles. A three-tiered cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, centred the bride's table.

Mr. S. Price proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. Mr. Price read telegrams of well wishes from relatives and friends in Montreal, Kitchener and Standard.

Miss Newfield again played suitable music and Miss Pat McDonald sang "Bless This House".
The happy couple left by car on a trip to southern Alberta and U.S. points. For travelling the bride wore a taupe gabardine suit with mauve accessories and a topcoat. Talisman roses formed her shoulder corsage.

On their return they will reside at Standard, where Mr. Summers is employed by an oil company.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding came from Edmonton, Stettler, Sundre, Calgary and Standard.
